No less a star than Kermit the Frog sang "Rainbow Connection", the first number in the 1979 musical The Muppet Movie. "When I was at school, I had pictures of Kermit on my pencil case," recalls Lang Lang. "I didn't know his story at the time – he was just this cute green frog who sometimes wore a prince's crown. And then I discovered he was the star of The Muppet Show."... The "The Disney Book" was released on September 16, 2022 by "Deutsche Grammophon" and "Disney Music Group".

Lang Lang is a leading figure in classical music today – as a pianist, educator and philanthropist he has become one of the world's most influential and committed ambassadors for the arts in the 21st century. Equally happy playing for billions of viewers at the 2008 Olympic Opening Ceremony in Beijing or just for a few hundred children in the public schools, he is a master of communicating through music.

Heralded by the New York Times as "the hottest artist on the classical music planet", Lang Lang plays sold-out concerts all over the world. He has formed ongoing collaborations with conductors including Sir Simon Rattle, Gustavo Dudamel, Daniel Barenboim and Christoph Eschenbach and performs with all the world's top orchestras. Lang Lang is known for thinking outside the box and frequently steps into different musical worlds. His performances at the GRAMMY Awards with Metallica, Pharrell Williams or jazz legend Herbie Hancock were watched by millions of viewers.

For about a decade Lang Lang has contributed to musical education worldwide. In 2008 he founded the Lang Lang International Music Foundation aimed at cultivating tomorrow's top pianists, championing music education at the forefront of technology, and building a young audience through live music experiences. In 2013 Lang Lang was designated by the Secretary General of the United Nations as a Messenger of Peace focusing on global education.
